press release

Amsterdam - November 2008

Basserk started about a month ago with a new series called the AD (AllDigital) series. The first band we released in this new series was Drifter TV and now we are back with a new one: MilkMoneyMaffia

MilkMoneyMaffia is a new talent from Syprøven in Greenland. We found this strange fellow on Myspace and we were sold immediately. We loved his dance able humouristic electro and asked him if he was interested in releasing an album with Basserk. He was, so he started working on his tracks right away. The result is 'Musik', a mini album with 7 great tracks. They all have really fat sounds and sound in a way so simple that you wonder what this weirdo has been doing all his life. The weird vocals have a boy-ish humour that made us laugh a lot, the quirky little breaks in the tracks give you a nice surprise just as you were wondering off in the world of MilkMoneys strange mind. A great album for everybody that loves electronic music with a bit of fun!

Last month MilkMoneyMaffia played his first ever live show in Europe at the Basserk label night during the Amsterdam Dance Event. At first he was a bit shy and you could see that he wasn't used to being in the spotlight (the guy is from fucking Greenland, can you blame him?) but it all changed when he realised that everybody was loving the new tracks. In the end everybody had a smile on their face and MilkMoney enjoyed all of it.

Anyway, check it yourself and you will hear what we're on about.
For sale now on iTunes, Beatport and other digital shops.
And remember this guy, you will hear lots more of him in the future!
